

Gillian Lee Hutshing

Gillian Lee Hutshing knows a good story when she sees one. She grew up in La Jolla, California and attended the University of California at Davis. Sparky the Wonderfish: A Story of How Love Creates Magic is Gillian's first children's book. She is currently working on a series of books to teach children big words in a fun and humorous way.

As a feature film editor in Los Angeles for over 20 years, she has worked with directors Ridley Scott, Peter Weir, Kevin Costner and more. Gillian has also worked on many films for children including "FernGully: The Last Rainforest" and "Oliver & Company."

An Enchanting Children's Book Proclaims the Magical Power of Love.

Sparky the Wonderfish: A Story of How Love Creates Magic is a charming true story of triumph over adversity.

Based on a true story, Sparky the Wonderfish, is about a little girl who manages to save a tiny feeder fish from becoming dinner for six ferocious Oscar fish. Although feeder fish aren't expected to live longer than days, the real-life Sparky lived happily for thirteen years in his bowl, and thanks to the little girl in the story, the fictional Sparky thrives as well!

"...This is a very sweet story that will appeal to a wide range of young readers..."

-Writer's Digest

"Your delightful, charming book 'Sparky the Wonderfish' is heartwarming and sure to delight..."
